

Dear Applicant

Re: Request for Application Pack

Thank you for your enquiry in response to our recent advertisement.

I am pleased to enclose your application pack. The job description and person specification outline the main responsibilities of the post and the skills, experience and knowledge, which we are looking for in the postholder.

This job is classified as having access to children or vulnerable adults. If your application is successful, we will check your suitability with the Criminal Records Bureau. They will carry out an Enhanced check and use information held on the Police National Computer, lists maintained by Government Departments and information from individual Police Forces. Having a criminal record may not be a bar to being employed by the Trust.

To ensure that your application will be considered, please return your completed form by the closing date.

Thank you for the interest that you have shown in working for Tameside Sports Trust.

Yours faithfully

Tameside Sports Trust

Equal Opportunities & Diversity Policy Statement

THE POLICY

Tameside Sports Trust is striving to be an effective Equal Opportunities Employer. The purpose of this policy is to provide opportunities to all in employment irrespective of gender, race, ethnic origin, disability, age, nationality, national origin, sexuality, religion, marital status and social class. We oppose all forms of unlawful and unfair discrimination.

All employees, whether part time, full time, temporary or casual will be treated fairly and equally. Selection for employment, promotion, training or any other benefit will be on the basis of aptitude and ability. All employees will be helped and encouraged to develop their full potential and the talents and resources of the workforce will be fully utilised to maximise the efficiency of the organisation.

COMMITMENT

The policy will be implemented within the framework of relevant legislation which includes:

- Equal Pay Act 1970 (Equal Value Amendment 1984)
 - Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974
- Sex Discrimination Act 1975 (Gender Reassignment Regulations 1999) (Indirect Discrimination & Burden of Proof Regulations 2001)
 - Race Relations Act 1976 (Race Relations Amendment Act 2000)
 - Disability Discrimination Act 1995
 - The Protection from Harassment Act 1997
 - Human Rights Act 1998
 - Employment Rights Act 1996
 - The Disclosure of Criminal Backgrounds Regulations 1988
 - The Asylum and Immigration Act 1996
 - Data Protection Act 1998
 - Public Interest Disclosure Act 1998
 - Employment Equality (Sexual Orientation) Regulations 2003
 - Employment Equality (Religion or Belief) Regulations 2003
 - Employment Equality (Age) Regulations 2006
 - Civil Partnership Act 2004
 - Work and Families Act 2006

Every employee is entitled to a working environment which promotes dignity and respect to all. No form of intimidation, bullying or harassment will be tolerated.

The commitment to equal opportunities and diversity in the workplace is good management practice and makes sound business sense. The principles and practices outlined in this policy will also extend to our partners and our customers in relation to the services we provide to the equal treatment of members of the public and equal opportunities with regard to the use of the facilities.

As employers we are liable for our employees' discrimination, both in terms of other employees, applicants and members of the public, if this occurs in the course of their employment. In order to pre-empt this it is necessary to make all employees aware of the policy and to take action to prevent discrimination at all levels. As such, no member of the public should be treated less favourably on the grounds of gender, race, ethnic origin, disability, age, nationality, national origin, sexuality, religion, marital status or social class.

PUTTING THE POLICY INTO PRACTICE

This statement is given to all employees and applicants. All staff on interview panels are trained on equal opportunities issues. Job applicants are encouraged from under represented groups. Adaptations will be provided where appropriate to meet the needs of disabled employees.

THE POLICY AND YOU

All employees are responsible for implementing the Trust's equal opportunities policies. It is important that all individuals who are employed by the Trust appreciate they have responsibility and a role to play in the provision of equal opportunities.
